SOUNDS!

From the Entombed Miners at Wilkesbarre.

The Rescuing Party Hear Signals from
the Long Imprisoned Work-
men.

Some Doubt Still Expressed as to the Possibility of Saving the Men.

STILL BURIED.

The Wilkesbarre Miners Still Imprisoned.

By Telegraph to The Sentinel.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 21.—There has been no developments since 2 o'clock this morning in regard to entombed miners. The latest official message received at that hour was workmen on the gangway from an air shaft, had reached the first chamber in which it was hoped some men will be found. None were found. There are six other chambers along the gangway, and it is thought the men will be found in one of them.
It is now fully believed the missing men were caught in the sand at the time
the cave in took place and they are now dead.

Later—The last messenger connected with the exploring party came out at 11:20 this morning. He reports none of the men discovered yet and all hope of ever seeing them alive is abandoned.

At 1:40 this afternoon the relief party were spurred on by a signal they had received which indicates there is life beyond. The tapping upon an iron air pipe was heard by the rescuers and they naturally conclude that there is yet good grounds of hope that at least some of the men may be rescued alive. It is the opinion of some of the best miners that they cannot reach the men for some days owing to the extent of obstructions.
Others expect they will reach the men
within the next ten hours.

MAD DOG BITES.

The Children are Under Treatment.

By Cable to The Sentinel.

PARIS, Dec. 21.—The four children
of Justin Fitzgerald, Patsy Ryan, Willie Lane and Patsy Reynolds, who were recently bitten by a mad dog at Trenton, N. J., and sailed December 9, to be placed under the treatment of Pasteur, reached this city to day and have proceeded to Pasteur's house, where special arrangements have been made for their treatment.

Butler Defies the Boycotters.

By Telegraph to The Sentinel.

NEW YORK, December 21.—"Benjamin F. Butler and servant" registered at the Fifth Avenue hotel yesterday. "I see it stated that I am afraid to come here since you have been boycotted," said the general to the clerk, "but that's not true." In conversation afterward he said that the system of boycotting had been carried too far. It was such things as boycotting the Fifth Avenue hotel
and newspapers that brought the system
into ridicule and destroyed its possibilities for doing good in the right direction.

A Desperate Encounter with Burglars.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 21.—Albert Pfiffer, of 821 South Seventh street, had
a desperate encounter with burglars
Sunday morning and will probably die
from the effects of the wounds received in the struggle.

A Murderer Lynched.

CHARLOTTE, S. C., Dec. 21.—Saturday morning the jail at Rockingham was forcibly entered by fifty masked men, who secured a white man named John
Lee and hanged him to the limb of a tree.
Lee murdered Solomon Wise three weeks ago for money.

A Fatal Quarrel

By Telegraph to The Sentinel.

SHARONVILLE, Ohio, Dec. 21.—Scott W. Heffner, a carpenter, was shot and killed by Frank W. Mullen, a barber, yesterday. The men lived in the same house, and the quarrel was over a woman.

defiled with tobacco spit the floor which Mrs. Mullen had just cleaned, they quarreled about it. Mullen, upon hearing of this, took up the quarrel and Heffner assaulted him with a butcher knife, when Mullen used his pistol with fatal effect.

A NATIONAL FAME.

The Fort Wayne Organ Factory
Gets an Order for One Hundred Instruments.

The mail this morning brought an order for over one hundred organs to the Fort Wayne organ company. The letter comes from the east and explains itself:

NEW YORK, Dec. 20, 1885.
Fort Wayne Organ Co., Fort Wayne, Ind.:
I just mailed you an order from Blasius & Sons, of Philadelphia, for 125 organs
to be sent at once. Twenty twenty-ones, H. & C.; twelve tens, flutes; twelve four-teens, C. and flutes; six thirties, flutes;
balance regular styles.

L. E. THAYER.

It is putting it mildly to say that this is a high compliment, coming as it does from one of the greatest cities in the union, a city inhabited too by a class of people noted for their good taste and choicest ways. These sort of orders, however, are not uncommon, and this one is only selected to show the demands on the Fort Wayne organ factory and the mammoth proportions to which its resources have grown. The organ factory has developed in every department, its facilities have been increased and its dimensions widened until it ranks with the great institutions of the country.
The Fort Wayne organs make melody in every state in the union, and but lately
they were successfully planted in the Pacific coast.

The Fort Wayne musical instrument is now famous. It has worked its way into public favor on its merits and will hold it on its reliability. It is a credit to Fort Wayne to have this intimation here—on institution supplying the trade of the civilized world with organs, and
the THE SENTINEL esteems it a pleasure to note its success.

CONGRESS.

Great Activity in Both Houses.

The Old Members Introduce a Number of Important Measures in the Senate.

The House No Less Active and the Policy of Both Are Outlined.

THE SENATE.

A Number of New Bills Introduced.

By Telegraph to The Sentinel.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Among the bills favorably reported and placed on the calendar were the following: Mr.
Edmonds, from the committee on judiciary, in reference to bigamy and polygamy in Utah. Mr. Hoar, from the same committee, an original bill to establish a uniform system in bankruptcy.
Senator Cullom introduced a postal telegraph bill to-day. It provides for the purchase of any existing lines, under the act of 1868, at an appraised valuation to be ascertained by a commission of five disinterested persons. Referred to the committee on postoffices and post-roads.

The bills introduced and referred are Van Wyck's to provide for the organization of that part of the territory of the United States known as the Indian territory and the public land strip into a territory to be known as the territory of the Oklahoma; to provide a temporary government for the same; for the allotment
of homesteads to Indians in severalty,
and to open unoccupied lands to Indian settlers.

Mr. Vest offered a resolution strongly commending the course of Secretary Bayard in the Kelly matter and moved a reference of the resolution to the committee on foreign relations. Mr. Plumb thought the incident showed how utterly useless the diplomatic service was and he hoped the committee would report that the service could be dispensed with altogether. The resolution was referred.

The senate passed the house concurrent resolution providing for an adjournment from to-day until Tuesday, January 5th.

By McPherson, for the relief of officers and crew of the steamer Monitor who participated in the engagement with the Merimac.

By Logan, to increase the efficiency of the army of the United States; also, to equalize the bounty of soldiers and marines of the late war; also, to pension prisoners of war who were confined in confederate military prisons during the late war.

HOUSE.

Among the bills introduced and referred were:

By Herbert, of Alabama, to provide a mode for vacating patents; also, relating to the compensation of United States attorneys, marshals and commissioners.

By Wheeler, to create a board of military statisticians; also to establish courts
of appeals, also to pension the survivors of the Mexican war, also for the relief of Fitz John Porter, also to amend the civil service act. (It amends the act by adding sections calculated to equalize the appointments in civil service among several states and provides that an appointing officer designate certain person for examination and upon his being found capable may appoint him to office.)

NOTES.

Senator Voorhees is reported as saying that the confirmation of District Attorney Lamb, Marshal Hawkins, Collectors Henderson and Hunter, and Wadsworth, postmaster, at LaPorte,
would be contested.

The Washington Herald says: "There is said to be considerable friction arising out of the desire of Mr. Springer, of Illinois, to be chairman of the post-office and post-roads committee, instead of Mr.
Townshend, his colleague, who it was believed, would be selected for that com-tee, giving up the place he held in the last congress on the appropriations committee. Judge Lowry, of Indiana, is also spoken of for the chairmanship.
The Judge is spoken of as a safe man,
capable of taking charge of any legislation that may be entrusted to his charge.
He is direct in his methods, painstaking and energetic, with a trained mind, broad in his conceptions, slow in arriving at conclusions, but prompt to act, when his mind is made up, and as tenacious of purpose as the proverbial bull-dog."

WHIRLED AWAY.

A Party of Prominent Gentlemen Viewing the Barnes
Smoke and Spark
Arrester.

Mr. Will Morris, master mechanic of the Wabash, had a special train at the south depot this morning to take 150
prominent citizens and railroad officials to Peru behind engine 1,005, which is equipped with the spark arrester and smoke consumer patented by Mr. J. B.
Barnes, general master mechanic of the Wabash. The train consisted of four coaches and a baggage car, in which was stored a thousand or two of the choicest cigars and a quarter hundred cases of champagne. The trip was to Peru and return, the party stopping at all stations en route to look at the towns and villages. The travelers dined at Peru at the expense of Messrs. Barnes and Morris, and THE SENTINEL expects the tourists to come back voting the spark arrester and smoke consumer a phenomenal success.

CAUGHT A THIEF.

Jimmie Nolan Arrested for Stealing a Dozen Chickens.

Peter Cessler is a huckster and among other things, he buys chickens. Saturday night some one went through his coop for a dozen of the choicest fowls and a turkey. In the shed he picked up a card with Jimmie Nolan's name on it.
He placed the matter in the hands of Deputy Marshal Limecooly and Detective John McCann. The officers arrested Nolan and restored to Cessler half of his chickens. There seems to be a gang of lads in this thieving business and Nolan divided his "catch" with them. The officers may induce the prisoners to confess and thus put irons on the "Baker Street Bandits," as they are styled.
Nolan will be indicted by the grand jury.

HE IS IN IRONS.

Isaac Stultz, the South Whitley
Lumber Merchant,
in Jail.

THE SENTINEL had a clean scoop in noting the elopement of Isaac Stultz and his sister-in-law, from South Whitley,
where Stultz was a lumber merchant.
He met the woman here and purchased a $500 organ from a Fort Wayne dealer and left for St. Paul with his brother's wife. Officer Singleton traced the people and located them for Marshal Supple, of Columbia City. Marshal
Supple got warrants and arrested Stultz
and his alleged wife at the Winslow house, St. Paul. Stultz is in jail at Columbia City, charged with obtaining $2,000 cash from his firm of Stultz & Warner, and collecting $1,023 from his friends on false pretenses. The woman was not arrested. She came back with him as far as Plymouth. Stultz says no case can be made against him, as he had a right to all the money, and left sufficient property to square all accounts.
The parties accusing Stultz of obtaining money under false pretenses are his partners, H. H. Warner, Simon Peabody and Louis Brown, of Columbia City.

Newsdealers are as a class popularly supposed to know a good thing when they see it, and are ever on the lookout for that which will interest and please the public. In a humble way Edison was once a newsdealer, having sold papers on railroads. Among newsdealers who have a keen eye to business and to everything that can be of benefit to Mr. G. W. Dove, of Vincennes, Ind., whose place of business is at No. 114 second street. Mr. Dove was recently afflicted with rheumatism, but quickly cured himself by using Athlophoros. This is what he says about it:

"Athlophoros is a good medicine and it did for me all that I could ask. At the time when I began using it I was sadly afflicted with rheumatism. I was a helpless state and suffered untold pain, not being able to get out of bed or to be moved without enduring the greatest agony. I had read some time before of the wonderful cures of people effected by Athlophoros, and at the time tried to buy it at the drug stores, but could not find any. As I was determined to try I sent to the company for some."

"Did it act quickly upon you?"

"I felt the effects almost immediately. After I had taken a few doses the pain subsided. The medicine seemed to go directly where the pain was."

"I have not suffered any return of the pain?"

"I have not suffered any return of the pain. I used only three bottles and consider it the best medicine for rheumatism that I know of. I recommended it to a gentleman in St. Louis who had his mother use some and was very much pleased with the result. I have recommended it to different persons, and in every instance where it was used it gave entire satisfaction."

J. A. Wilson, the well-known photographer, 6 and 8 Main St., New Albany, tells an equally interesting story of how Athlophoros cured him of rheumatism.

"I only used one bottle," he says. "The rheumatism was in my arms and I had sharp, shooting pains. I was suffering and complaining a great deal, when a friend coming into my gallery one morning asked me what the trouble was. I said it was rheumatism. Said my friend: 'I was reading of a medicine that is for the cure of rheumatism and neuralgia. It struck me forcibly, as it did not claim to cure every complaint that flesh is heir to.' When I asked him what it was he said the name was Athlophoros. I bought a bottle on the strength of what he said. That was all I needed. I used the one bottle over six months ago and have not had a pain or an ache from rheumatism since."

From Greensburg, Ind., D. L. Southard has this to say of what Athlophoros did for him:

"When Bishop Bowman brought me a bottle of Athlophoros I was suffering greatly from rheumatism and could scarcely move. I began taking the medicine on Thursday morning. At 9 P. M. I went to sleep and slept until 6 o'clock Friday morning, when I got up and said to my wife: 'Dear, look here, I am well.' At the first I was so much better that I stopped using the medicine and the rheumatism came back. The second attack was not stopped so easily, but still in double the time the Athlophoros removed the pain. The medicine had no unpleasant effect, but seemed to quiet, soothe and give relief."

If you cannot get Athlophoros of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. DO NOT BE DECEIVED.

Hypocrisy is the complement vice pays to virtue. Imitation is the complement failure pays to success. The name—not the character—of Benson's Capsule Plaster is imitated by unscrupulous parties, who make and try to sell plasters variously called "Capsulin," "Capsulin," "Capsulin," "Capsulin," "Capsulin," with the manifest intention to deceive. So cunningly and boldly is this done that careless people are sometimes beguiled into buying such articles in place of the genuine. Happily the number who follow this vocation decreases every year through the refusal of reputable dealers to handle the imitation goods, meanwhile be cautious. In the middle of the genuine is cut or porous the word "Capsulin," shown on the face cloth the "Three Seal" trademark. Ask for Benson's—then examine. One Benson's is worth a dozen of any other kind.

OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY.

MONDAY, DEC. 21, 1885.

A TELEGRAM from Wabash says that Lee Linn has not sold the Courier. The dispatch says: "Contrary to general expectation, the consolidation of the Wabash Courier and Plaindealer, which was to have been effected to-day, is off."

At a meeting of the proposed stockholders at the office of A. M. Atkinson, this morning, differences arose culminating in a number of the leading gentlemen interested withdrawing their names. The two papers will continue to be published independently. The city has been considerably torn up for a week past over the affair.

In the United States senate there are five senators of foreign birth, Beck, a native of Scotland, Senators Fair, Jones and Sewell, were born in Ireland, and Senator Jones of Nevada, who was born in England. The representatives of foreign birth number twelve, five of them—Davis and Collins, of Massachusetts; McAdoo, Dowd, and Lowry first saw the light on the Emerald Isle. Mr. Hahn, of Kentucky, and Romeis, of Ohio, are natives of Bavaria, Pulitzer, of New York, Hungary; Nelson, Minnesota, of Norway; Miller, New York, of Germany; West, of New York, England; Farquhar, of New York, Scotland.

The forthcoming report of the state auditor will show that the indebtedness of the state was increased $1,160,000 during the past year—$60,000 by transferring the state university endowment to the general fund of the treasury and the remainder to complete the new state house and asylums for the incurable insane. The latter are likely to prove very expensive institutions, for while the intention of the legislature that passed the law authorizing their construction was doubtless to provide for three asylums at a total cost of $600,000, it seems probable that the expenditure made necessary if the present plans are carried out, will more than double that amount. It is seldom that a state undertakes so many and such expensive improvements at the same time.

The introduction of the megaphone on shipboard—a sort of telescope for the ear, or machine for magnifying sound—is said to be a boon in prospect for mariners. Its design is to enable a person to hear or carry on a conversation with people at a distance, and it is constructed of two huge cone-shaped tubes, eight feet long and three in diameter at the large end, which diminish to an apex in the form of rubber tubes small enough to place in the ear. Between these tubes are two smaller ones constructed in the same manner, but not more than half the diameter. By placing the rubber tubes in the ear and speaking through the smaller cones the person can hear and be heard at a long distance, and it thus aids mariners in listening for the sound of breakers or carrying on conversation with persons on shore or on other vessels at a distance.

A FLOOD of light is let in on the singular spread of Socialism in the German capital by statistics showing that in Berlin no less than 94,000 families, comprising nearly 400,000 individuals, have to live, sleep, and often work in "suites" of a single room. In 3,000 of these rooms there is neither stove nor fireplace. One-fourth of their tenants are poor lodgers. Twenty-five thousand families live in cellars under sanitary conditions that are characterized as absolutely shocking. Such meagre accommodations as the despised New York tenements afford, with their two or three rooms to each family, are at a premium, and would be accounted a great boon by thousands. Only of the poorest and the best classes of dwellings—those renting at 10,000 reichmarks a year or over—is there abundance, for the Berlin tumbler is a speculator and not a philanthropist. The poor have not even the chance of going to church of a Sunday to meditate on better things to come, were they so minded; for all the Protestant churches and chapels in Berlin have together hardly seats for 50,000, while the servant girls alone number over 50,000.

The New York World has discovered a woman, whose home is in Vine-land, N. J., who has with her own hands built an eight-room addition to her house, laid the bricks, mixed, made, and applied the plaster with the skill of a mason, roofed it, and driven every nail from the foundation to the top; also dug a well thirty-five feet deep, and fixed herself so that she will be more comfortable hereafter. During all this time she has lived at a cost of nine cents a day, six cents for a quart of milk and three cents for a loaf of stale bread. This remarkable woman, whose name is McMahon, has wealthy relatives in New York, and is related to eminent people on both sides of the house. She is educated and refined, dresses plainly but tidily, keeps her hands soft and white notwithstanding her hard labor, is something of an artist, though not painting much at present; has a musical voice, a bright eye, and rosy cheeks, notwithstanding her white hair, and is as chirrupy as a lark. Her relatives have repeatedly offered to assist her, sometimes almost forcing money upon her, but she declines their assistance, preferring the glorious privilege of being independent.

A WISCONSIN farmer was recently filled with strange forebodings because of the peculiar conduct of a partridge, which, for three days in succession, flew from an adjoining wood and lighted on the man's head while he was at work in an open field. The bird was probably fond of hayseed, but that natural explanation never occurred to the believer in old-time superstitions. Instead of finding a natural explanation of the incident the man became firmly convinced of impending trouble. This dread found a startling confirmation by the arrival of news from the East informing the farmer of an uncle's sudden death. The gloom was lightened, however, by the further announcement that the uncle had left him a large fortune.

It is said that ultra-fashionable young ladies in New York are learning to knit stockings, using gold needles tipped with pearls. A pair of stockings knit with gold needles tipped with pearls, says the Norristown Herald, are as susceptible to wearing out at the heels as rapidly as a pair knit with steel needles. Perhaps if gold wash-boilers and gold frying-pans, gold tea-kettles and gold brooms, inlaid with pearls, were to be introduced into "society" in New York, ultra-fashionable young ladies would learn to assist their mothers to perform the cooking and other household duties.

The football season in England has barely got into full swing, but already two deaths have been caused by the game, besides a goodly number of broken limbs. The controversy of the comparative safety of the two styles of playing is left just where it was before, since one of the deaths occurred in an association, and the other in a Rugby match, though at the inquest held on the latter a witness assured the coroner that Rugby football was much less dangerous.

The pain and misery suffered by those who are afflicted with dyspepsia are indescribable. The distress of the body is equalled or surpassed by the confusion and tortures of the mind, thus making its victims suffer double affliction. The relief that is given by Hood's Sarsaparilla has caused thousands to be thankful for this great medicine. It dispels the causes of dyspepsia, and tones up the digestive organs. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We differ in creed and politics, but we are a unit all the same on the desirability of a fine head of hair. If you mourn the loss of this blessing and ornament, a bottle or two of Parker's Hair Balsam will make you look as you did in the dear old days. It is worth trying. It is the only standard 50c article for the hair.

Danger from Catarrh

That exceedingly disagreeable and very prevalent disease, catarrh, is caused by scrofulous taint in the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla, by its powerful purifying and vitalizing action upon the blood, speedily removes the cause, and thus effects a radical and permanent cure of catarrh. Those who suffer from its varied symptoms—uncomfortable flow from the nose, offensive breath, ringing and bursting noises in the ears, swelling of the soft parts of the throat, nervous prostration, etc.—should take Hood's Sarsaparilla and be cured.

The Best Medicine

"I have suffered with catarrh in my head for years, and paid out hundreds of dollars for medicines, but have heretofore received only temporary relief. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and now my catarrh is nearly cured, the weakness of my body is all gone, my appetite is good—in fact, I feel like another person. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine I have ever taken." Mrs. A. CUNNINGHAM, Providence, R. I.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Made only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar.

Serious consequences are liable to ensue if catarrh is not attended to in season. The disease frequently destroys the sense of smell and often develops into bronchitis or pulmonary consumption. Undoubtedly many cases of consumption originate in catarrh. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh and has even effected remarkable cures of consumption itself, in its early stages. A book containing statements of many cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, will be sent free to all who send address to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Catarrh and Impure Blood

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has helped me more for catarrh and impure blood than anything else I ever used." A. RALL, Syracuse, N. Y. "I suffered three years with catarrh, and my general health was poor in consequence. When I took Hood's Sarsaparilla I found I had the right remedy. The catarrh is yielding, as Hood's Sarsaparilla is cleansing my blood, and the general tone of my system is improving." FRANK WASHBURN, Rochester, N. Y.

The Prices!

Frequently people see elegant articles in our fine show windows, which they think must be very expensive. Upon inquiry, to their surprise, they find the price is not half what they supposed it would be. As an illustration: The other day a lady was wistfully looking at a bedroom suit in one of our windows. "Better buy it," we said jokingly to her. "I only wish I could," was her answer, "for I need a set badly. But I can't pay over $50." We asked her about what she thought that set was worth? "She didn't know," she replied, "but it was worth a good deal more than she could afford to pay." We informed her that if she would count out $28.50 to us, she should have the set. Surprised beyond measure, she closed the bargain at once. So if you see anything in our windows, and desire to know the price, step in and ask. It will be no trouble to us, if it is not to you.

Scrofula of Lungs Relieved.

I am now 49 years old, and have suffered for the last fifteen years with a lung trouble. Several members of the family on my mother's side of the house had died with consumption, and the doctors were all agreed in their opinion that I had consumption also. I had all the distressing symptoms of this terrible disease. I have spent thousands of dollars to arrest the march of this disease. I have employed all of the usual methods, not only in my own case, but in the treatment of other members of my family, but temporary relief was all that I obtained. I was unfit for any manual labor for several years. By chance I came into possession of a pamphlet on "Blood and Skin Disease," from the office of Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga. A friend recommended the use of Swift's Specific, claiming that he himself had been greatly benefited by its use in some lung troubles. I resolved to try it. About four years ago I commenced to take S. S. S. according to directions. I found it an invigorating tonic, and have used about fifty bottles. The results are most remarkable. My cough has left me, my strength has returned, and I weigh sixty pounds more than I ever did in my life. It has been three years since I stopped the use of the medicine, but I have had no return of the disease, and there are no pains or weakness felt in my lungs. I do the hardest kind of mechanical work, and am as fit as I ever was. These, I know, are wonderful statements to make, but I am honest when I say that I love my existence and health to-day to Swift's Specific. It is the only medicine that brought me any permanent relief. I do not say that Swift's Specific will do this in every case, but most positively affirm that it has done this much for me, and I would be recreant to the duty I owe to suffering humanity if I failed to bear this cheerful testimony to the merits of this wonderful medicine. I am well known in the city of Montgomery, and can refer to some of the best citizens in the city.

GOPHERS.

A Schoolboy's Composition on the Fun of Hunting These Curious Animals.
Gofers is curious. They are made of hair an' tail and stripes an' korn and have a pocket on each side of his jaw instead of in his pants. Gofers eat oats an' korn and roots an' so forth. When you shoot them they always crawl in their holes to dy. They seem to carry the hole with them an' when they get shot they drop the hole an' run in. Gofers sit up an' whistle to a feller an' laf. Once one whistled to me. I snunk up on him with a gun an' shot him. He jest dropped as quick as a cat can wink an' eye and run round and looked for the shot, and got killed over. The best way to shoot a gofer is to poison him. We soaked some korn in strinkine un' throwed it round.

Policeman—I trust you will not be offended, sir, if I take the liberty of informing you that I can not allow you to stand longer on this corner.
(Old Style—) Move on, young feller, or I'll club the whole top of your head off!"

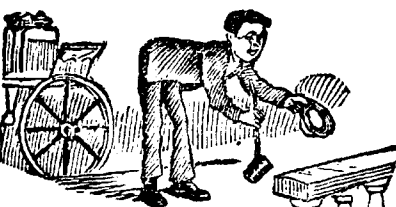

The gofers would slip up an' grab a piece, sit up an' hold it with his front teeth an' nibble it, when all of a sudden he would look surprised then he would drop the korn, rub his stomach with one hand, kane strickine his awful hot, then gave a big whistle and drop ded. I have seen a gofer fill his cheeks so full of oats that he had worn a bole in each cheek rubbin' against the side of the hole as he ran down. Some gofers is awful greedy. They freeze up in winter and thaw out in the spring. Once I found a frozen gofer and took him home an' thawed him out. He was awful surprised kane he thought it was summer. The cat killed him an' I skun him. Gofers look awful funny when they are skint.—Nemo, in Peck's Sun.

TIME FLIES.

It seems but a short while ago
That the fields all their beauty were wearing;
Now his ode to the "Beautiful Snow"
The poet's already preparing.

The rose was red,
The violet blue;
The rose is dead,
The violet, too.

It seems but yesterday she trod the strand
And listened to the music of the band—
But yesterday she jumbled in the sea;
Now close beside the stove she wants to be.
Thus time speeds on. How swift the seasons fly.
The natty bathing suit is scarcely dry
Before the time for wearing tins is nigh.
—Boston Courier.

Milkman—Will the good people of this house kindly take notice that the pure and undiluted Orange County milk is at the door?
(Old Style—"W-o-w-o-o-p!")

An Insecure Little Girl.
Mother—My little girl goes to sleep so nicely every night when I sing to her. Isn't that so, Mamie?
Mamie—Yes, that's so, ma.
The mother leaves the room for a moment, and Mamie says to the visitor:
"Don't tell ma, but I only make out that I am asleep to get her to stop singing, she sings so awful bad."—Exchange.

Before and After.
"Do you love me, darling?" she softly breathed in her betrothed's ear.
"Better than life, my precious dove," he murmured.
Three years later she asked him—
"Do you love me now as then?"
"Oh, let up on that old chestnut, will you?" was his soulful reply.—N. Y. Journal.

Hack-driver—As pains me to decline the pleasure and honor of driving you to Harlem for less than two dollars, sir.
(Old style—"Two dollars, boss; not a cent less. Do you think I'm drivin' this cab fur my health?")—Puck.

The Secret of Success.
"They tell me you have acquired a snug fortune, Mr. Grimes."
"Perhaps I have."
"What was the secret of your success?"
"Minding my own business, sir."—Chas. Mayo Ledger.

SOUNDS!

From the Entombed Miners at Wilkesbarre.

The Rescuing Party Hear Signals from the Long Imprisoned Workmen.

Some Doubt Still Expressed as to the Possibility of Saving the Men.

STILL BURIED.

The Wilkesbarre Miners Still Imprisoned.

By Telegram to The Sentinel. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 21.—There has been no developments since 2 o'clock this morning in regard to entombed miners. The latest official message received at that hour was workmen on the gangway from an air shaft, had reached the first chamber in which it was hoped some men will be found. None were found. There are six other chambers along the gangway, and it is thought the men will be found in one of them. It is now fully believed the missing men were caught in the sand at the time the cave in took place and they are now dead.

Later—The last messenger connected with the exploring party came out at 11:20 this morning. He reports none of the men discovered yet and all hope of ever seeing them alive is abandoned.

At 1:40 this afternoon the relief party were spurred on by a signal they had received which indicates there is life beyond. The tapping upon an iron air pipe was heard by the rescuers and they naturally conclude that there is yet good grounds of hope that at least some of the men may be rescued alive. It is the opinion of some of the best miners that they cannot reach the men for some days owing to the extent of obstructions. Others expect they will reach the men within the next ten hours.

MAD DOG BITES.

The Children are Under Treatment.

By Cable to The Sentinel. PARIS, Dec. 21.—The four children of Justin Fitzgerald, Patry Ryan, Willie Lane and Patry Reynolds, who were recently bitten by a mad dog at Trenton, N. J., and sailed December 9, to be placed under the treatment of Pasteur, reached this city to day and have proceeded to Pasteur's house, where special arrangements have been made for their treatment.

Butler Defies the Boycotters.

By Telegram to The Sentinel. New York, December 21.—"Benjamin F. Butler and servant" registered at the Fifth Avenue hotel yesterday. "I see it stated that I am afraid to come here since you have been boycotted," said the general to the clerk, "but that's not true." In conversation afterward he said that the system of boycotting had been carried too far. It was such things as boycotting the Fifth Avenue hotel and newspapers that brought the system into ridicule and destroyed its possibilities for doing good in the right direction.

A Desperate Encounter with Burglars.

By Cable to The Sentinel. St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 21.—Albert Pfiffer, of 821 South Seventh street, had a desperate encounter with burglars Sunday morning and will probably die from the effects of the wounds received in the struggle.

A Murderer Lynched.

By Telegram to The Sentinel. CHARLOTTE, S. C., Dec. 21.—Saturday morning the jail at Rockingham was forcibly entered by fifty masked men, who secured a white man named John Lee and hanged him to the limb of a tree. Lee murdered Solomon Wise three weeks ago for money.

Hon. W. C. Pierrepont Dead.

By Telegram to The Sentinel. PIERREPONT, N. Y., Dec. 21.—Hon. William C. Pierrepont died yesterday morning in the eighty-third year of his age.

A Fatal Quarrel

By Telegram to The Sentinel. SHANNONVILLE, Ohio, Dec. 21.—Scott W. Hether, a carpenter, was shot and killed by Frank W. Mullen, a barber, yesterday. The men lived in the same building, using the same hall. Hether defiled with tobacco spit the floor which Mrs. Mullen had just cleaned, they quarreled about it. Mullen, upon hearing of this, took up the quarrel and Hether assaulted him with a butcher knife, when Mullen used his pistol with fatal effect.

A NATIONAL FAME.

The Fort Wayne Organ Factory Gets an Order for One Hundred Instruments.

The mail this morning brought an order for over one hundred organs to the Fort Wayne organ company. The letter comes from the east and explains itself:

New York, Dec. 20, 1885. Fort Wayne Organ Co., Fort Wayne, Ind.: I just mailed you an order from Blumina & Sons, of Philadelphia, for 125 organs to be sent at once. Twenty twenty-ones, H. & C.; twelve tens, flute; twelve four-teens, C. and flute; six thirties, flute; balance regular styles.

L. E. THAYER. It is putting it mildly to say that this is a high compliment, coming as it does from one of the greatest cities in the union, a city inhabited too by a class of people noted for their good taste and choice ways. These sort of orders, however, are not uncommon, and this one is only selected to show the demands on the Fort Wayne organ factory and the mammoth proportions to which its resources have grown. The organ factory has developed in every department, its facilities have been increased and its dimensions widened until it ranks with the great institutions of the country. The Fort Wayne organs make melody in every state in the union, and but lately they were successfully planted in the Pacific coast.

The Fort Wayne musical instrument is now famous. It has worked its way into public favor on its merits and will hold it on its reliability. It is a credit to Fort Wayne to have this institution here—an institution supplying the trade of the civilized world with organs, and the Tax Collector esteems it a pleasure to note its success.

CONGRESS.

Great Activity in Both Houses.

The Old Members Introduce a Number of Important Measures in the Senate.

The House No Less Active and the Policy of Both Are Outlined.

THE SENATE.

A Number of New Bills Introduced.

By Telegram to The Sentinel. WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Among the bills favorably reported and placed on the calendar were the following: Mr. Edmonds, from the committee on judiciary, in reference to bigamy and polygamy in Utah. Mr. Hoar, from the same committee, an original bill to establish a uniform system in bankruptcy. Senator Culom introduced a postal telegraph bill to-day. It provides for the purchase of any existing lines, under the act of 1868, at an appraised valuation to be ascertained by a commission of five disinterested persons. Referred to the committee on postoffices and post-roads.

The bills introduced and referred are Van Wyck's to provide for the organization of that part of the territory of the United States known as the Indian territory and the public land strip into a territory to be known as the territory of the Oklahoma; to provide a temporary government for the same; for the allotment of homesteads to Indians in severalty, and to open unoccupied lands to Indian settlers.

Mr. Vest offered a resolution strongly commending the course of Secretary Rayard in the Kelly matter and moved a reference of the resolution to the committee on foreign relations. Mr. Plumb thought the incident showed how utterly useless the diplomatic service was and he hoped the committee would report that the service could be dispensed with altogether. The resolution was referred. The senate passed the house concurrent resolution providing for an adjournment from to-day until Tuesday, January 5th.

By McPherson, for the relief of officers and crew of the steamer Monitor who participated in the engagement with the Merrimac.

By Logan, to increase the efficiency of the army of the United States; also, to equalize the bounty of soldiers and marines of the late war; also, to pension prisoners of war who were confined in Confederate military prisons during the late war.

HOUSE.

Among the bills introduced and referred were:

By Herbert, of Alabama, to provide a mode for vacating patents; also, relating to the compensation of United States attorneys, marshals and commissioners.

By Wheeler, to create a board of military statisticians; also to establish courts of appeals, also to pension the survivors of the Mexican war, also for the relief of Fitz John Porter, also to amend the civil service act. It amends the act by adding sections calculated to equalize the appointments in civil service among several states and provides that an appointing officer designate certain persons for examination and upon his being found capable may appoint him to office.

SENATE.

Senator Voorhees is reported as saying that the confirmation of District Attorney Lamb, Marshal Hawkins, Collectors Henderson and Hunter, and Wadsworth, postmaster at LaPorte, would be contested.

The Washington Herald says: "There is said to be considerable friction arising out of the desire of Mr. Springer, of Illinois, to be chairman of the post-office and post-roads committee, instead of Mr. Townsend, his colleague, whom was believed, would be selected for that committee, giving up the place he held in the last congress on the appropriations committee. Judge Lowry, of Indiana, is also spoken of for the chairmanship. The Judge is spoken of as a safe man, capable of taking charge of any legislation that may be presented to his charge. He is said to have no methods, painstaking and energetic, with a trained mind, broad in his comprehension, slow in arriving at conclusions, but prompt to act, when his mind is made up, and as tenacious of purpose as the proverbial bull-dog."

WHIRLED AWAY.

A Party of Prominent Gentlemen Viewing the Barnes Smoke and Spark Arrestor.

Mr. Will Morris, master mechanic of the Wash, had a special train at the south depot this morning to take 150 prominent citizens and railroad officials to Peru behind engine 1,005, which is equipped with the spark arrester and smoke consumer patented by Mr. J. B. Barnes, general master mechanic of the Wash. The train consisted of four coaches and a baggage car, in which was stored a thousand or two of the choicest cigars and a quarter hundred cases of champagne. The trip was to Peru and return, the party stopping at all stations en route to look at the towns and villages. The travelers dined at Peru at the expense of Messrs. Barnes and Morris, and THE SENTINEL expects the tourists to come back voting the spark arrester and smoke consumer a phenomenal success.

CAUGHT A THIEF.

Jimmie Nolan Arrested for Stealing a Dozen Chickens.

Peter Cawler is a huckster and among other things, he buys chickens. Saturday night some one went through his coop for a dozen of the choicest fowls and a turkey. In the shed he picked up a card with Jimmie Nolan's name on it. He placed the matter in the hands of Deputy Marshal Limecooly and Detective John McCann. The officers arrested Nolan and restored to Cawler half of his chickens. There seems to be a gang of lads in this thieving business and Nolan divided his "catch" with them. The officers may induce the prisoners to confess and thus put irons on the "Baker Street Bandits," as they are styled. Nolan will be indicted by the grand jury.

AT THE TOP.

The Nickel Plate road carried 3,773 tons and the Pittsburg next to the largest shipment, 6,210 tons.

HE IS IN IRONS.

Isaac Stultz, the South Whitley Lumber Merchant, in Jail.

THE SENTINEL had a clean scoop in noting the elopement of Isaac Stultz and his sister-in-law, from South Whitley, where Stultz was a lumber merchant. He met the woman here and purchased a $500 organ from a Fort Wayne dealer and left for St. Paul with his brother's wife. Officer Singleton traced the people and located them for Marshal Supple, of Columbia City. Marshal Supple got warrants and arrested Stultz and his alleged wife at the Winslow house, St. Paul. Stultz is in jail at Columbia City, charged with obtaining $2,000 cash from his firm of Stultz & Warner, and collecting $1,023 from his friends on false pretenses. The woman was not arrested. She came back with him as far as Plymouth. Stultz says no case can be made against him, as he had a right to all the money, and left sufficient property to square all accounts. The parties accusing Stultz of obtaining money under false pretenses are his partners, H. H. Warner, Simon Peabody and Louis Brown, of Columbia City.
